

Partnership Agreement

The Global Connections Committee of the Washington Ethical Society and

The Community of El Rodeo. El Salvador

After a week of shared experience, The Global Connections Committee of the Washington Ethical Society (WES) of Washington, District of Columbia, United States of America, with the community of El Rodeo, Santa Marta, Cabanas, El Salvador (El Rodeo) together decided to adopt the following agreements to reflect our thoughts, feelings and intentions in facilitating our sister community relationship.

On Thursday, July 15, 2010 at 8:00 p.m.

The residents of El Rodeo agree to:

- Establish and maintain an honest and open communication with WES,
- Continue organizing the community to achieve it's plans and goals,
- Work with WES to plan and receive delegations in El Rodeo and to make them feel at home with confidence and security,
- Work together with WES on any projects and processes of the partnership,
- Maintain documentation of the relationship and processes between El Rodeo and WES,
- Honor and keep all agreements with WES.

The Global Connections Committee agrees to:

- Establish and maintain an honest and open communication with El Rodeo,
- Continue to visit El Rodeo at least annually,
- Learn and respect the rules and customs of El Rodeo and treat each person with love, dignity and respect,
- Keep the people of El Rodeo in our thoughts and in our hearts,
- Support and accompany the community of El Rodeo with any projects and dreams they undertake to achieve,
- Stand and act in solidarity with El Rodeo within our congregation, in our community, (and with the government of the United States),
- Communicate clearly what resources we do or do not have and share what we can,
- Honor and keep all agreements made with El Rodeo.

Global Connections delegates: Julie Farrar, Peggy Goetz, Maya Taft-Morales, Sean Taft-Morales, George Taylor, Ross Wells and Pam Williams