

Team Volunteer Descriptions

Team Name: Children's Education Council (CEC)

Description: The CEC help to develop and promote all of the educational offerings for children and teens.

This team is important to WES because: It is fundamental to WES's mission as a multi-generational community to ensure that we have excellent programming for children of all ages. In addition, we seek to teach children and teens to be kind and fair, and to take responsibility for creating a better world.

Volunteer Title: Council Member

General Responsibilities of Volunteer:

- Regularly attend and participate in CEC meetings
- Support the Director of Lifelong Learning in developing programming and curriculum for children and their families at WES

General Time Requirement

- Monthly meetings, during the evening of the 3rd or 4th Monday of the month – 2 hours.
- Members may also occasionally perform additional research or administrative duties outside of meetings from time to time, as needed. – 30–60 minutes per week.

Knowledge, talents, or aptitudes helpful in this volunteer role:

- Understanding of children's developmental stages
- Knowledge of planning activities and curriculum for children and teens of various ages
- Respect for the wide range of talents, interests, and abilities of all children.

Benefits of serving in this volunteer role: Opportunity to ensure that we continue to serve the needs of children and teens who are part of the WES community. Our excellent Sunday school, COA-MATT program, and other programming for children and teens is something that attracts individuals and families to the WES community – we work to ensure that the excellence of these offerings continue, as well as to assist with adapting to new opportunities as they arise.

How to join this team: contact Melissa Sinclair, Director of Lifelong Learning, at melissas@ethicalsociety.org or Kate Lang, CEC Chair at klang20910@yahoo.com

Date Created: January 13, 2017