WELCOME ALL AUCTION HEROES!

The WES Auction is a highlight of our community's social calendar. We come together to celebrate, to laugh, to share good food and drink, to be entertained, to marvel at the skills and talents of our membership, and to appreciate what we are to each other.

Many of our auction items, our events and outings in particular, are tailored to cultivate and expand upon this conviviality and fellowship by bringing together smaller groups of friends, old and new. That some holiday shopping may also be achieved is no small bonus!

The auction committee would like to thank everyone who generously donated items to be auctioned this year. If you donated an item but you don't see it listed in the catalog, it may have been incorporated into a basket or it may not have been a good fit for any of this year's baskets or was duplicative of another item and may be used in next year's auction. Please be assured that you should itemize all items you donated for tax purposes. Any items we are unable to use will be donated to a charity. If you need a tax receipt for your donation, contact Sarah Morris at se.morris@verizon.net. Many thanks to everyone who made the auction possible through their generosity.

The opportunities afforded by our Auction are indeed many; the greatest of which may be the much-needed financial support of our thriving Community. Raising funds is the primary reason we're here tonight.

So, lift your glass and your paddle. Bid high and then higher. And enjoy everything the night, and WES, has to offer.

Thank you from the Auction Team:

Sparks really start to fly, when a workers' strike pits management against labor and ignites an outrageous battle of the sexes. Packed with seductive dance numbers like "Steam Heat" and "Hernando's Hideaway," the pajama and nightie shenanigans will liven up the hectic holiday season. Victor Franz has returned home to settle his late father's estate. In an attic overflowing with memories and furniture he meets the enigmatic Gregory Solomon, a professional appraiser committed to turning a profit off Victor's past. But before a bargain can be struck, an estranged brother enters the scene to reframe Victor's memories and force them both to reconsider the true cost of personal sacrifices.
